THE Latest BUZZ (as of January 11 2019 afternoon)

(a Short Take On Present Buzz) by Mick Burton, Buzz Editor (& Hornets Treasurer a Deux, Current Contest Director for 2017/18 season)

YES! Now # 85 In case you are a new reader, the Issue number is off by one always, since # 0 was outset of this lark. That clarified or muddied, let's get to some actual important business!

“ STILL MAKING EFFORT TO CATCH UP AS LIFE HAPPENS ”

Well as some of you know first hand, this is the FIRST issue of the Buzz seeing the light of day since Spring of 2018. For 2019, it's pretty much on time and schedule. Here's the Editor hoping this will be more often than not for this year, as opposed to last. The majority of issues in his life currently promoting delays still are in play, but finally learning how to juggle in the struggle more effectively. A week off helped over holidays.

Right now the Editor has finished producing/publishing (directly to Free Hornets Archive as was promised) Buzz # 81, Buzz # 82 along with the already published #83 and 84 of this time frame in 2018. Catching up!

While I intended to give some props and coverage to two fall events I managed to make (the Sonoma County Fundemonium show in October and USS Hornet Model Expo # 2 in November) alas, time has run out to get this publication out even on time to “presage the meeting” of January 2019 which is TONIGHT.

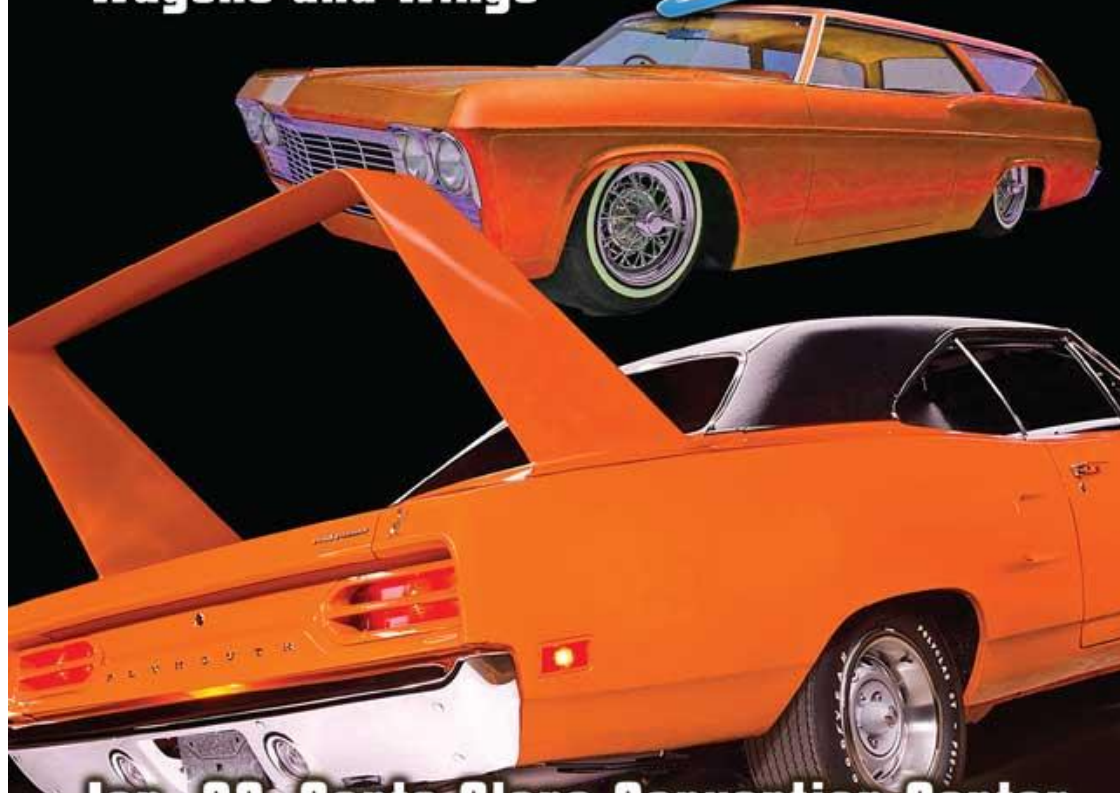

So it goes, mayhaps I'll manage a way to yet cover those events a little more. Otherwise here is a quick look at upcoming NEW EVENTS, and nothing else. Read or ignore entirely what I am or I am not doing that may be of interest to you and be aware that it only gets done if it's fun (this newsletter got started in a fit of pique over another of my web sites being hacked, years back) . I close this editorial with another deadline imminent for another fine family but knowing it is my new one which has my utmost first priority in all matters of my time and resource now.

As any of you who have been so lucky to have a group of loved ones of your own, there's no question there –mick
